

Zenith Rehabilitation Services- Asian Indian Caucus Student and Clinician Scholarships

The Asian Indian Caucus (AIC), a multicultural constituency group of ASHA, is pleased to announce the “Zenith Rehabilitation Services – Asian Indian Caucus Student and Clinician Scholarships” for eligible students and clinicians attending the 2018 American Speech and Hearing Association (ASHA) Convention at Boston, MA. There will be a total of one student and one-clinician scholarship to the amount of $500 each, provided to eligible students and clinicians in the field of speech language pathology and audiology.

a) Eligibility for Student Scholarship:

- a. Students must be full time or part time MS/MA and/or AuD/PhD students from an accredited Speech Language Pathology/Communication Sciences and Disorders program in the United States.
- b. Students should be presenting at the ASHA convention, either a poster or oral presentation, with content preferably related to speech/language/hearing/swallowing/cognition research/services pertaining to Asian Indian Population.
- c. Application Materials:
 - i. Statement of intent indicating why he/she is applying for this scholarship and how it will benefit them and the target community
 - ii. Biographical Sketch/CV
 - iii. One recommendation letter from a faculty of their institution

b) Eligibility for Clinician Scholarship:

- a. Clinicians must be ASHA certified and be currently working full time or part time at an organization/company in the United States.
- b. Clinicians should be presenting at the ASHA convention, either a poster or oral presentation, with content preferably related to speech/language/hearing/swallowing/cognition research/services pertaining to Asian Indian Population.
- c. Application Materials:
 - i. Statement of intent indicating why he/she is applying for this scholarship and how it will benefit them and the target community
 - ii. Biographical Sketch/CV
 - iii. One recommendation letter from a supervisor or higher authority of their organization.

Application Deadline:

All Applications should be mailed to asianindiancaucus@gmail.com, no later than November 2, 2018 12:00pm PST. Winners will be announced at the Asian Indian Caucus (AIC) Annual Meeting on Nov 15th, 5:30-6:30 pm at the 2018 ASHA Convention at Webster, Boston Convention and Exhibition Center, Boston MA.